

Havana, January 4th, 2010

Dear colleagues:

The Entrepreneurial Group LABIOFAM has the pleasure to invite you to participate in the International Congress LABIOFAM 2010 and the I Symposium of natural products in the therapy against the cancer, to take place from September 28th to October 1st, in the Palace of Conventions, Havana, Cuba.

During the sessions of the Congress a commercial & scientific exhibition will be developed in the Main Exhibition Hall of the own headquarters, where the companies, laboratories and specialized firms, national and foreign, will have an unique possibility to expose their equipment, products, medicaments and other materials related with the topics of the event.

With the certainty that the Congress LABIOFAM 2010 is an exceptional occasion to exchange experiences and waiting that your participation constitutes a profitable and valuable opportunity to know each other, we wait for you in Cuba.

Sincerely,

Dr. José Antonio Fraga Castro
General Director
LABIOFAM Entrepreneurial Group
